

The Mid-Atlantic Chapter of the Aging Life Care Association is part of a national association of practitioners from both public and private sectors. We represent Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia.

Our goal is to provide those who are aging, or who have chronic illnesses or disabilities, with guidance, appropriate resources, and care planning to promote their optimal social, psychological, and physical well-being. As Aging Life Care Professionals®, we strive to ensure the highest quality, most effective services. Our goal is to reduce the stress for family caregivers and create the most effective plan that encourages safety, independence, and autonomy.
